SITE LICENSE AGREEMENT

for EurAtlas®, SWITZERLAND Georeferenced Historical Vector Data

This is a legal Agreement between

- Christos Nüssli ("Licensor") holder of the trademark EurAtlas, author of EurAtlas Periodis, periodical historical atlas of Europe, and owner of the proprietary rights in this work and in the Georeferenced Historical Vector Data, that is a part of EurAtlas Periodis

A. The Licensee acknowledges that the Georeferenced Historical Vector Data are original works protected by intellectual property legislation.

The Licensee will not acquire any ownership in the Data. Rather, he has a non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited license to install and to use the digital data, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The Licensee owns the physical media on which the Data are recorded, but the Licensor retains all ownership interests in the Data.

B. The licensee may install and use the Georeferenced Historical Vector Data on the Institution's network or on the computers within the Institution while acknowledging the data source from EurAtlas.

The Licensee may give Authorized Users only access to the Georeferenced Historical Vector Data. Authorized Users are individuals at the Institution who are faculty, staff, students or on-site-users of the Institution's library and campus computer network.

The Licensee agree to inform all Authorized Users about the Terms and Conditions of the Utilisation License below.

The Authorized Users may use the Georeferenced Historical Vector Data for teaching and research purposes only. At no time is commercial use authorized.

C. The Licensee undertakes himself to respect and to require the respect from the Authorized Users of the Utilisation License below.

UTILISATION LICENSE

A. Rights Conferred by the License

1. The Licensee and the Authorized Users are authorised to use the vectorial data, alone or combined with other data, for the illustration of books, booklets and publications on paper and to disseminate them on these media.

They are authorised to use the vectorial data for the creation of geographical maps or other graphic media as raster images (bitmap), capable of being disseminated on CD-ROMs.

They may also offer these documents, for purely illustrative purposes, on an Internet site.

B. Limitations on the Granted Rights

2. Regardless of the medium (non-digital or digital as raster images) only representations as indicated under clause 1 above, may be disseminated and in no case the vectorial data themselves. Moreover, these representations should not constitute the essence of the contents of the product (derived work) that will be disseminated, or of the contents of the Internet site on which they will be offered. Lastly, any modifications and additions made should not contain any obviously illegal, humanly discriminatory or scientifically erroneous elements.

All the rights conferred under clause 1 above are subject to the limitations appearing under clauses 3 and 4 below and to the respect of the obligatory mention indicated under clause 5 below.

3. The Licensee and the Authorized Users may not entrust the vectorial data to an outsider. In no case may the rights conferred on the Licensee be yielded to an outsider.

The Licensee and the Authorized Users shall not authorize or allow any third party to duplicate or reproduce the Data, in whole or in part, in any form or format whatsoever without the prior written consent of the Licensor, nor sell, loan, lease, distribute, transfer or sublicense the Data or otherwise assign any rights under this Agreement to any third party without the prior written consent of the Licensor.

4. The Licensee and the Authorized Users may not disseminate a work, on any medium whatsoever, that could be an entire or substantial reconstitution of the EurAtlas maps (EurAtlas Periodis) from the vectorial data, e.g. for the publication of an historic atlas of Europe. To be authorised, any work derived from the vectorial data must deal with a subject different from that of the EurAtlas Periodis and any additions or modifications made must exceed 50% of the derived work both in the general presentation and in its content. Moreover, the title of the derived work should not, whether alone or in combination, contain the expression "Periodical Historical Atlas of Europe" nor the names EurAtlas and Periodis.

D. Obligatory Mention

5. (a) Any graphical representation established from the Data as envisaged in clause 1, whatever the medium, must comprise the following mention:

"© Copyright 2008, Christos Nüssli, EurAtlas – www.euratlas.com, reproduction prohibited, license of (date of this agreement)"

(b) When the modifications or additions made to the original work are, in the general presentation or its components, less than 70% of the derived work, the documentation accompanying the derived work will have to mention the original work and the Licensor's rights, for example, in the following form:

"map drawn with the EurAtlas Georeferenced Historical Vector Data © Copyright 2008, Christos Nüssli, EurAtlas – www.euratlas.com, reproduction prohibited, license of (date of this agreement)"

E. Guarantees and Responsibilities

6. The Licensor has devoted its best efforts to collecting and preparing the vectorial data but it does not provide any guarantee or assurance, either express or tacit, deriving from the law or other sources, as to the exactness, utility, innovation, validity, extent, precision or adequacy of the data for a particular purpose. The Licensor will not be liable in any event for any loss of profits, breaking-off of an agreement, or any loss arising as a result of the inaccuracy or incompleteness in the Data.

7. The Licensor will not be liable to the Licensee in any respect for any claims, loss or injury alleged to have resulted from use or detention of the Data or of derived work.

F. Application and Possible Litigation

8. This agreement is effective as of the date and time the Institution download the Georeferenced Historical Vector Data and shall apply throughout the duration of the legal copyright protection and without any territorial limitation.

This Agreement shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws in force in Switzerland. The court having jurisdiction is at Yverdon-les-Bains, Vaud.
